WELCOME TO THE SPRING preVIEW 2008

The cover illustration for this preVIEW was a very natural choice. It is a 1973 limited edition screen print by Patrick Hughes entitled 'Allsorts' purchased from Heal's Art Gallery. It is one of many works of art removed from Langford Hall near Newark. The 200 lots of pictures in the 7th May cover most areas from Contemporary to Old Master and the subject matter is just as diverse.

The March Collective Sale included over 400 lots of decorative and modern furnishings from the Hall. This was very well received and noted for its eclectic mix of tastes and styles. The 7th May Quarterly Sale includes the residual antique furniture and effects including an excellent selection of Nottinghamshire books.

In the last edition of preVIEW we announced the sale of the Colin Wilson monkeys. An exciting development has added to this story. A third monkey is now consigned which compounds the theory of attribution to Giambologna. The hunt is now on for the last one, hopefully it will surface before the sale on the 30th July.

Watch this space.

We also announced the sale of the important medal group of Group Captain R W Oxspring RAF. This exciting lot is now complimented on the 7th May by the DFC group of D M A Smythe RAF 223 Sqn.

There is viewing for this sale on Bank Holiday Monday 5th May. The staff and I look forward to seeing you there between 2pm and 5pm.

Finally, with the Wilson Monkeys and other important collections already consigned, the July Quarterly Sale may well be our most important sale of Antiques & Fine Art to date. Knowing that many of you will wish to enter items we look forward to receiving your entries NOW. This sale will be limited by lot entries and offered strictly on a first come, first served basis. Entries will probably close early, so act quickly to avoid inevitable disappointment.
